Hawker Paul MacKinnon plays 100th AHL game this weekend

Hawthorn's Paul MacKinnon plays his 100th Australian Hockey League (AHL) game this weekend at the State Netball & Hockey Centre, Melbourne. Paul, who is a midfielder, represented the ACT from 2001 to 2008. From 2009 onwards, Paul has represented Victoria, playing for the Victoria Vikings.

Paul's 100 games have been played out solely in the AHL competition. Prior to this, the competition was known as the NHL, however, there are no statistics held from this competition. The NHL was the national domestic hockey competition in operation from 1991 which was later replaced by the AHL in 2001.

Paul joins Nicole Arrol as the only AHL players to reach 100 games. Nicole played her 100th game in the last round of the women's competition.

Paul's consistent performance at a state level is an achievement which is noteworthy as it is believed that he has not missed a game since the inception of the AHL. He has played 100 out of 100 matches of AHL hockey. No one can play more than that!

Paul was part of the 2008 Hawks State League 1 premiership team and in that same year he was awarded the Fin McNab Award for the State League's most valuable player.

Match Report – Rd 10

WSL1: Mentone 3 v Hawthorn 2

The Women's SL1 team had a disappointing result to their match on Saturday against Mentone. The signs were there from the start, with at least 4 players getting lost, arriving at the wrong ground or running late. Only 12 players were available, the manager was worried, and things were not looking good for the Hawks girls...

With a full team finally assembled, the girls took to the field, but left their teamwork, hearts, determination and desire to win on the sideline. Merely going through the paces wasn't ever going to be enough to bring down the fired up team from Mentone.

There were flashes of brilliance in the second half with a strong performance from Penny Richardson in goals, and some inspirational determination from our youngest player Anna Robinson. Goals from Claire Messent and Meg Lanning helped lift the team momentarily but it wasn't enough with the team eventually going down 3-2.

After a first round win against Mentone, this was a frustrating and unexpected start to the second half of the season. However after some post match reflection, the team is ready to step it up and give it everything as we fight to secure a place in the four over the next 8 rounds.
